WHERE ARE WE GOING?

Delhi

Delhi, the capital of India, is one of the most influential cities in the world. Like everything in the country, its history can be traced back more than 5,000 years. Delhi has always had great importance. In ancient times, they would say, "Whoever conquers Delhi, conquers India." Today, Delhi is a modern city whose culture and ancient history are preserved in fortresses and temples.

Jaipur

Better known as the pink city, Jaipur is the capital of the state of Rajasthan, one of the largest states in India. Rajasthan translates as "The land of kings" because it is here where some of the most powerful and influential kings lived. It is also a place that inspires much devotion for its temples, buildings, fortresses and palaces, as well as its war history.

Dehradun

Dehradun, the gateway to the Himalayas, is where some of the most important Buddhist monasteries and schools are located. The Mindrolling monastery stands out among them, as it is one of the most prominent monasteries in the entire country.

Rishikesh

Known worldwide as the capital of Yoga, it is one of the most visited cities in the country. Located in the beautiful foothills of the Himalayas, where the Ganges River flows pristinely from the mountains. There are hundreds of ashrams and yoga schools and ancient places of great importance. In addition, you can witness the ritual of worship of the Ganges River that has been carried out for hundreds of years.

Vrindavan

The city of 5,000 temples is the ideal place to get to know the culture, devotion and rituals of India in depth. It is a city characterized by its spirituality, where each building and each person shares the purpose of connecting with the spiritual. There are few places like it in the world.

Agra

Agra is the city of the Taj Mahal, one of the 7 wonders of the world, the jewel among all the palaces, a construction that never ceases to surprise the millions of people who visit it every year.

WHO IS THIS TRIP FOR?

GUIDES

Angela

I was born in Colombia. Since my teenage years, I have held a profound interest in Yoga, Indian philosophy, and culture. Professionally, I trained as a Chef de Cuisine at Le Cordon Bleu. Additionally, I received yoga instructor training in India under Swami Sachidanand and in Colombia under Andrei Ram and Sheyna Vodovoz.

I have traveled extensively, studying and practicing various Eastern philosophies. Currently based in the United States, I work as a Yoga Instructor, actively participating in community programs and advocating for foster children.

Vrindavan

India has been my home for the last 15 years. I moved here in search of a higher purpose of life. Started living in an ashram when I was 13 years old and spend 11 years learning the ancient wisdom of the vedas.

I have been guiding groups of pilgrims from all around the world, taking them to the most breathtaking temples and cities of this holy land. It is my pleasure to serve you in this trip which for sure will be a life-changing experience.

WHAT WILL THE ACCOMMODATIONS BE LIKE?

We believe a trip with a purpose should also be comfortable and safe. Therefore, we only stay at the best 3, 4, and 5-star hotels in great locations. Here we share some images of the hotels we use often!

WHAT WILL THE FOOD BE LIKE?

We will enjoy buffet-style breakfasts at the hotels and vegetarian meals for lunch and dinner at local eateries. It will be a gastronomic trip as well! Don't let those Indian street food videos you might have seen scare you. Not everything is as shown on the Internet!

DATE AND WEATHER OF THE TRIP

The trip starts on Saturday, October 18 and ends on Saturday, November 1st. During this time the weather in India is perfect, neither too hot nor too cold.
